

Deadline extended for the 2019 Spring Conference

Thursday, May 2, or Friday, May 3 | 8:30 a.m.

Eagan Community Center

1501 Central Parkway | Eagan, MN 55121

This one-day conference is offered two separate days so participants may select the date that is most convenient.

Conference Kick-Start: Rise and Shine

Start the day off right with some movement! The fitness coordinators at the Eagan Community Center will get everyone moving with some easy body weight exercises that could be done in the office throughout your daily work.

Data Practices 101

The Data Practices Office will provide an overview of the requirements in the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act. Learn about copy costs, data breaches, and best practices for responding to data requests.

Legislative Updates

The League of Minnesota Cities will be back for their annual updates from the Minnesota Legislature.

The Happy Hour Effect with Kristen Brown

Five Mindset Hacks for Personal Growth

Amp up your performance with a fresh perspective on work/life balance. (It's a big myth!) Keynote speaker Kristen Brown will use her Happy Hour Effect framework to help you gain perspective on the many moving pieces of your work and personal lives so you make better decisions, amplify your leadership, and boost your productivity even when the pressure is on.

$70 per member* | $85 per non-member

Please note: if your city is a member city, all employees are considered members.*

Register by Friday, April 26

Not a member? Join Munci-Pals today to receive the discounted member rate! Membership is only $40 per city!
